

Silent Meditation

The Lap of God

She was shelling peas,
apron-covered knees
spread wide to catch each pea/each pod

I, shaky, needy wandered near

Her ancient swollen hands pushed back the hair that hid my face

She set down the pan and,
patting her knee,
said:

oh, child
come on up here
and let me have a look at you.

Her voice was safe and so was I sitting in the lap of God.

Welcome and Announcements ✕

Nancy Ellett Allison

One: May the peace of Jesus, the man from Galilee, be with you!

Many: And also with you!

(Please pass the friendship pads so that all worshippers might have the opportunity to sign them)

Opening Voluntary

“Wonderful Words of Life”

Jared Fischer

* Call to Worship (from 1 John 4)

Terrance Hayes

One: Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God;

Many: Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

One: God’s love was revealed among us in this way:

Many: God sent Jesus into the world so that we might live as he lived. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another.

One: No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and God’s love is perfected in us.

Many: By this we know that we abide in God and God in us, we have received God’s Spirit. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them.

One: There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love.

Many: We love because God first loved us.

One: The commandment we have from God is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

* Passing of the Peace

One: Let us now greet one another as a sign of God’s peace, for the peace of God is here to stay.

Many: Thanks be to God.

\ All rise in body or spirit ☩ Sing Response ✕ Hymnals located below pews*

1. Im-mor-tal, in-vis-i-ble, God on-ly wise, in light in-ac-ces-si-ble hid from our eyes,
Most bless-ed, most glo-rious, the An-cient of Days,
al-might-y, vic-to-rious, your great name we praise.

2. Un-rest-ing, un-hast-ing, and si-lent as light, not want-ing, not wast-ing, but rul-ing in might;
Your jus-tice like moun-tains high soar-ing a-bove,
your clouds which are foun-tains of good-ness and love.

3. Your life is life-giv-ing—to both great and small;
in all life you're liv-ing, the true life of all;
We blos-som and flour-ish as leaves and as flowers,
then with-er and per-ish—but naught dims your powers.

4. So per-fect your glo-ry, so bril-liant your light,
your an-gels a-dore you, all veil-ing their sight;
All praise we now ren-der as your an-gels do:
in awe at the splen-dor of light hid-ing you.

"A New Hallelujah"

Can you hear, there's a new song
Breaking out from the children of freedom
Every race and every nation
Sing it out, sing a new Hallelujah.

Let us sing love to the nations
Bringing hope of the grace that has freed us
Make it known and make it famous
Sing it out, sing a new Hallelujah.

Chorus: Arise, let the church arise, Let Love reach to the other side.
Alive, come alive, let the song arise.

Everyone sings a new song
Reaching out with a new Hallelujah
Every son and every daughter
Everyone sing a new Hallelujah. (Chorus)

New Life Story

Barry Holcomb

Contemporary Word “Mother’s Day Proclamation, 1870”
by Julia Ward Howe

Laura Hankins

Arise then...women of this day!
Arise, all women who have hearts!
Whether your baptism be of water or of tears!
Say firmly:

“We will not have questions answered by irrelevant agencies, our husbands will not come to us, reeking with carnage, for caresses and applause. Our sons shall not be taken from us to unlearn all that we have been able to teach them of charity, mercy and patience. We, the women of one country, will be too tender of those of another country to allow our sons to be trained to injure theirs.”

From the bosom of a devastated Earth a voice goes up with our own. It says: “Disarm! Disarm! The sword of murder is not the balance of justice.” Blood does not wipe out dishonor, nor violence indicate possession. As men have often forsaken the plough and the anvil at the summons of war let women now leave all that may be left of home for a great and earnest day of counsel. Let them meet first, as women, to bewail and commemorate the dead. Let them solemnly take counsel with each other as to the means whereby the great human family can live in peace...each bearing after his own time the sacred impress, not of Caesar, but of God. In the name of womanhood and humanity, I earnestly ask that a general congress of women without limit of nationality, may be appointed and held at someplace deemed most convenient and the earliest period consistent with its objects, to promote the alliance of the different nationalities, the amicable settlement of international questions, and the great and general interests of peace.

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.

1. Love di-vine, all loves ex-cel-ling,
joy of heaven, on earth be found,
Fix in us a hum-ble dwell-ing,
all your faith-ful mer-cies crown;
Je-sus, you are all com-pas-sion;
pure, un-bound-ed love im-part.
Vis-it us with your sal-va-tion,
en-ter ev-ery trem-bling heart.

2. Breathe, O breathe your lov-ing Spir-it in-to ev-ery trou-bled breast;
Let us all in you in-her-it,
let us find your prom-ised rest;
Take a-way our love of sin-ning;
Al-pha and O-me-ga be;
End of faith, as its be-gin-ning,
set our hearts at lib-er-ty.

3. Come, al-might-y to de-liv-er,
let us all your life re-ceive;
Sud-den-ly re-turn, and ne-ver, ne-ver-more your tem-ples leave.
You we would be al-ways bless-ing,
love you as your an-gels love,
Pray and praise for your un-fail-ing,
wound-ed arms out-stretched a-bove.

4. Fin-ish, then, your new cre-a-tion;
pure and spot-less may we prove;
Let us see your great sal-va-tion
per-fect-ly re-stored in you;
Changed from glo-ry in-to glo-ry,
till in heaven we take our place, Crowned as saints, we ev-er shall be lost in won-der, love, and praise.
