

Silent Meditation

We human beings are most fully alive when we love what God loves. And God loves the entire creation.

~ Jake Owensby

The dominion here mandated is with reference to the animals. The dominance is that of a shepherd who cares for, tends, and feeds the animals... the task of "dominion" does not have to do with exploitation and abuse. It has to do with securing the well-being of every other creature and bringing the promise of each to full fruition.... The role of the human person is to see to it that the creation becomes fully the creation willed by God.

A Word of Witness

Fred Robinson

* Gospel Lesson

Matthew 6:25-33

Fred Robinson

Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these...Strive first for the kingdom of God and God's righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.

For the beau-ty of the earth,
for the splen-dor of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
o-ver and a-round us lies,
God of all, to you we raise
this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

For the won-der of each hour
of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon, and start of light,
God of all, to you we raise
this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

For the joy of hu-man love,
broth-er, sis-ter, par-ent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends a-bove,
for all gen-tle thoughts and mild,
God of all, to you we raise
this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

For the good that love in-spires,
for a world where none ex-clude,
For a faith that nev-er tires,
and for ev-ery heart re-newed,
God of all, to you we raise
this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

Hebrew Wisdom

Psalm 104

Jim Hong

Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty...You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills, giving drink to every wild animal; the wild asses quench their thirst. By the streams the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches. From your lofty abode you water the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work. You cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for people to use, to bring forth food from the earth, and wine to gladden the human heart, oil to make the face shine, and bread to strengthen the human heart.

You make darkness, and it is night, when all the animals of the forest come creeping out. The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God. When the sun rises, they withdraw and lie down in their dens. People go out to their work and to their labor until the evening. O Living God, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. May the glory of God endure forever; may God rejoice in all!

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Invitation to the Table

One: The earth is the Lord's and everything in it,

Many: God's glory covers the earth as the waters over the sea.

One: The trees of the field clap their hands; the birds of the air sing songs of praise.

Many: If we should fail to express our worship, even the rocks and stones would cry out! We lift up our hearts, and we lift up our voices,

One: We offer thanksgiving and adoration to the Living Creator of all.

Many: Blessed are you, Sovereign of the Universe, for from seeds sown into the earth you have given us the gift of bread to feed and nourish us. At Jesus' last meal with his friends, before facing the cross, Jesus took bread, blessed it and broke it. Then he passed it among them saying:

One: This is my body, broken for you. Take and eat, do this to remember me.

Many: Blessed are you, Sovereign of the Universe for from grapes which grow ripe and sweet on the vine, you have given us the gift of wine to refresh and heal us. At Jesus' last meal with his friends, he took the cup of wine and blessed it. Then he passed it among them saying:

One: This is my blood shed for you. Take and drink, do this to remember me.

Many: Now we come to your table again, Jesus, mindful of how you laid your life down, so that we and creation could be born anew; mindful of how you took your life up again, so that we and creation could be filled with the life abundant; mindful that we cannot earn or purchase this privilege, but that it is your grace which beckons us, and your grace which ensures that all creation may be one and whole.

Prayer of Consecration

One: May your Spirit work in these fruits of earth, so that they may become for us a sharing in Christ's body and blood.

Many: May your Spirit work in we, who are children of earth, so that we may be transformed into Christ's body, carrying his life, his love, and his salvation to all creation. Amen.

*Communion is received by intinction. Please take bread or a gluten free wafer and dip it into the cup to receive both elements.
The Communion elements are bread and grape juice.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving

All: On this Sunday of World Communion and of celebrating the joy of creation's diversity, we give thanks, Living God, for all the members of your universal church; may we be bound together by the spiritual ties of this celebration. Strengthen our faith, increase our love for one another and for all creation until all of us come to the unity of faith through the Living Christ. Amen.
