

The original Amistad (friendship in Spanish) was a coastal cargo vessel carrying 53 kidnapped Africans to be sold into slavery until they broke their chains and seized the ship. Thinking they were sailing for home and freedom, they were tricked by the pilot and apprehended off the coast of Long Island, N.Y. Brought to New Haven, Conn., they were jailed on charges of mutiny and murder.

The story might have ended there if it hadn't been for a courageous band of Congregational, Baptist and Presbyterian abolitionists who fought the charges all the way to the Supreme Court, which set the captives free on the grounds that they had never been slaves.

Out of that struggle, the abolitionists formed the American Missionary Association, which was eventually absorbed into the wider United Church of Christ.

“Everyone Thirsting”

BUNESSAN

Everyone thirsting, come to the waters!
You with no money, come buy and eat!
Come for the sweet wine, come for the fresh milk,
Come with no money, there is no price.

Why spend your living on what can't feed you?
Why labor long and not satisfy?
Listen to me, child, let my words guide you,
And you'll be feasting, full of good life.

You have a future, I have ordained it;
Through David's lineage deliverance comes.
Nations unknown to you will befriend you,
God's glory shines through you from now on.

Contemporary Song

“Wonder”

by J Houston & M Crocker

Music Cooperative

Have you ever seen the wonder In the glimmer of first sight
As the eyes begin to open And the blindness meets the light
If you have so say

Chorus 1: I see the world in light I see the world in wonder
I see the world in life Bursting in living color
I see the world Your way And I’m walking in the light

Have you ever seen the wonder In the air of second life
Having come out of the waters With the old one left behind
If you have so say

Chorus 2: I see the world in grace I see the world in gospel
I see the world Your way And I’m walking in the light

Interlude: I’m walking in the wonder You’re the wonder in the wild
Turning wilderness to wonder If You have so say

Chorus 3: I see the world in love I see the world in freedom
I see the Jesus way You’re the wonder in the wild

Bridge: I see the world Your way And I’m not afraid to follow
I see the world Your way And I’m not ashamed to say so
I see the Jesus way And I’m walking in the light
(to Chorus 1, 2, END)

Children’s Offering & Message

Nancy Ellett Allison

(Following the Children’s Message, preschoolers go to extended care and those in kindergarten through fifth grade to Children’s Church.)

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant... Seek the Living One while God may be found, call upon God who is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the Holy One, that God may have mercy on them, and to our God, who will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Living God. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.

Call to Prayer

“Return to God”

by Marty Haugen

(Soloist sings, congregation sings)

Refrain

Re - turn to God with all your heart, the Source of grace and mer - cy; come seek the ten - der faith - ful - ness of God.

Prayer of Confession (unison, attributed to St. Francis of Assisi)

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life. Let us begin again as instruments of peace through Christ Jesus who taught us to pray, Our God in whom is heaven, hallowed be your name...(Lord's Prayer, using sins, sinner)

Assurance of Pardon

One: Return to the Living God, who will show you peace and mercy, come back to God who will abundantly pardon. In the name of the Living Christ, I declare to all who turn to God: "Your sins are forgiven! Go in peace."

Many: Thanks be to God. Amen.

Gospel Lesson

Luke 13:1-5

Nancy Ellett Allison

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. Jesus asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them - do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did."

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.
