

During the course of Nancy's sabbatical, "Flat Nancy" (a one-dimensional cutout of Nancy in her clerical robe) has been to numerous places in the company of church members and friends. She has enjoyed her symbolic time away but today returns in the reality of three dimensions to resume her pastorate with us. It is with joy that we welcome her back on July 3rd.

The drawing on the cover is by Riley Long. We thank her for it. It depicts a flat church, and with it some challenging questions: Where will the church take us in the years ahead? What new challenges will it face? What personal gifts and skills will church members need to meet what lies ahead? Mystery after mystery!

Of one thing we can be sure: The future will always be different than the past. Yet we can learn from where we have been so as to better inform ourselves about where we will be.

Christians have been at this task for as long as the Church has been in existence. Let us trust that we have learned well. Off we go in the company of Flat Church!

* Call to Worship

Phil Kaveler

One: Across the world, the followers of Jesus worship in churches noted for their incredible variety.

Many: Music, architecture, theology, tradition - each and all reflect the differences born in the past. Each forges a future in which variety will continue to be a hallmark.

One: Sameness can dull the senses and stifle creativity. Creation itself is characterized by diversity and differentness. As we look to the Church in the future, we can expect to see it maintain its unique differences.

Many: Prognosticators of the future are notoriously wrong - but of one truth we can be sure: God will still use the church as an agent of change in the world.

One: Holy Covenant will be part of that future. What changes there will be, what adaptations to changing times will be required, no one knows.

All: Of one thing, however, we can be sure: God will still call us to be a church where all are extravagantly welcomed no matter where they are on their spiritual journeys.

One: Let us now greet one another as a sign of God's peace, for the peace of Christ is here to stay.

“Come, Let Us Join with Faithful Souls”

AZMON

Come, let us join with faith-ful souls our song of faith to raise;
One fam-i-ly in heart are we, and one the God we praise.

Faith-ful are all who love the truth and per-fect truth pro-claim,
Who steadfast stand at God's right hand and glorify God's name.

And faith-ful are the gen-tle hearts to whom the power is given
Of ev-ery heart to make a home, of ev-ery home a heaven.

O God of hosts, our faith re-new, and grant us, in your grace,
To join the songs sung by the saints in ev-ery time and place.

The Church in Mission

Matthew 25:31-40

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’ “Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’ “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’

* Hymn 539

“Won’t You Let Me Be Your Servant?”

SERVANT SONG

1. Won’t you let me be your ser-vant, let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my ser-vant, too.
2. We are pil-grims on a jour-ney, we are trav-elers on the road;
We are here to help each oth-er go the mile and bear the load.
3. I will hold the Christ-light for you in the shad-ow of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you, speak the peace you long to hear.
4. I will weep when you are weep-ing; when you laugh, I’ll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sor-row till we’ve seen this jour-ney through.
5. When we sing to God in heav-en we shall find such har-mo-ny,
Born of all we’ve known to-geth-er of Christ’s love and ag-o-ny.
6. Won’t you let me be your ser-vant, let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my ser-vant, too.

The Church as the Good Neighbor

Luke 10:29-37

But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. ‘Look after him,’ he said, ‘and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.’ “Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?” The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.” Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.”

The Church Where Individual Gifts are Celebrated

Romans 12:2-9

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully. Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good.

The Quality of Life in the Church

Colossians 3:12-17

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT HOLY COVENANT

WELCOME TO HOLY COVENANT

We welcome all who worship with us at Holy Covenant. Guests and members, we invite you to sign our friendship pads so that we may have a record of your worshipping with us and be in touch with you during the week. Over the past three months, while our Pastor has been on sabbatical, the Holy Covenant United Church of Christ congregation has been under the pastoral care of some pretty impressive individuals. Rev. Steve Garvey, Rev. H. Linn Finger, and Rev. Jim and Faye Humphrey, have worked in concert to meet the needs of our congregation. We are truly thankful for your humble and gracious service. May these words from Numbers 6:24-26 convey our appreciation and blessing to you for your service!

"May the Lord bless you and keep you;

May the Lord's face shine upon you, and be gracious to you;

May the Lord lift up countenance upon you, and give you peace."
