

Silent Meditation

Understandings of Atonement or “At-one-ment” *how are we made one with God

Sacrificial Theory: Jesus is the unblemished lamb sacrificed for the sin of humanity as in Old Testament theology.

Satisfaction Theory: Jesus embraced death to make amends for the offenses of humanity and, in doing so, satisfied God's honor.

Penal Substitution Theory: Because humans have sinned and wounded God's honor they deserve the wrath of God ...As our substitute, Jesus absorbed the wrath of God's punishment against sin, restored God's honor, and so enables us to escape God's wrath.

Moral Example Theory: Jesus lived and died a moral life and by embracing his example we can find salvation from sin, learn to love God and others, and even sacrifice our lives for the good of others.

Process Theology: Atonement is rooted in the loving nature of God who reconciles the world in every moment of time. Atonement is relational, including restoration, peace, and justice for humans and all creation

* Gospel Lesson

Luke 22 selections

Kristin Andes

Then (the chief priests, the officers of the temple police, and the elders who had come for him) seized Jesus and led him away, bringing him into the high priest’s house....Now the men who were holding Jesus began to mock him and beat him; they also blindfolded him and kept asking him, ‘Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?’ They kept heaping many other insults on him.

When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they brought Jesus to their council. They said, ‘If you are the Messiah, tell us.’ He replied, ‘If I tell you, you will not believe; and if I question you, you will not answer. But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.’ All of them asked, ‘Are you, then, the Son of God?’ He said to them, ‘You say that I am.’ Then they said, ‘What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips!’

Luke 23 selections

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.' And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!'

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, 'Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.' Having said this, he breathed his last.

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.

Call to Prayer

"Return to God"

by Marty Haugen

Refrain

Re - turn to God with all your heart, the Source of grace and mer - cy; come seek the ten - der faith - ful - ness of God.

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Adapted from a prayer by Howard Thurman

The concern, which I lay before God today, is my concern for the life of the world in these troubled times. I confess my own inner confusion as I look out upon the world. There is food for all - many are hungry. There are clothes enough for all - many are in rags. There is room enough for all - many are crowded. There are none who want war - preparations for conflict abound.

I confess my own share in the ills of the times. I have shirked my own responsibilities as a citizen. I have been concerned about my own little job, my own little security, my own shelter, my own bread. I have not really cared about jobs for others, security for others, shelter for others, bread for others. I have silenced my own voice that it may not be heard on the side of any cause, however right, if it meant running risks or damaging my own little reputation.

Forgive me O God, Let Thy light burn in me that I may, from this moment on, take effective steps within my own power, to live up to the light and to courageously pay for the kind of world I so deeply desire. Renew my soul as together we pray, Our God in whom is heaven, hallowed be your name... (Lord's Prayer, using sins, sinner)

Anthem

"In Feast or Fallow"
by Sandra McCracken

Music Cooperative

When the fields are dry, and the winter is long Blessed are the meek, the hungry, the poor.
When my soul is downcast, and my voice has no song
For mercy, for comfort, I wait on the Lord.

Chorus: In the harvest feast or the fallow ground
My certain hope is in Jesus found.
My lot, my cup, my portion sure
Whatever comes, we shall endure;
Whatever comes, we shall endure.

On a cross of wood, His blood was outpoured
Christ rose from the ground, like a bird to the sky
Bringing peace to our violence, and crushing death's door
Our Maker incarnate, our God who provides. (Chorus)

When the earth beneath me crumbles and quakes
Not a sparrow falls, nor a hair from my head
Without Christ's hand to guide me, my shield and my strength
In joy or in sorrow, in life or in death. (Chorus)

Assurance of Pardon Fred Robinson
As from the cross Jesus flung forgiveness into the world, so may we know and live that forgiveness today. May courage be our witness to the faithfulness of God!

Epistle Lesson Philippians 2:3-13 Keith Dennis Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.
