

Silent Meditation

We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work. Nothing we do is complete, which is a way of saying that the Kingdom always lies beyond us.

No prayer fully expresses our faith.

No confession brings perfection.

No pastoral visit brings wholeness.

No program accomplishes the Church's mission.

This is what we are about.

We plant the seeds that one day will grow.

We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise.

We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that.

This enables us to do something, and to do it very well.

We are workers, not master builders; ministers, not messiahs.

We are prophets of a future not our own.

~Bishop Ken Untener

1. Come, O Spir-it, dwell a-mong us,
Come with Pen-te-cos-tal power;
Give the church a strong-er vi-sion,
Help us face each cru-cial hour.
Built up-on a firm foun-d -tion,
Je-sus Christ, the Cor-ner-stone,
Still the church is called to mission
That God's love shall be made known.
2. We would raise our al-le-lu-ias
For the grace of for-mer years;
For to-mor-row's un-known path-way,
Hear, O God, our hum-ble prayers.
In the church's pil-grim jour-ney
You have led us all the way,
Still in pres-ence move be-fore us,
Fire by night and cloud by day.
3. Come, O Spir-it, dwell a-mong us;
Give us words of fire and flame.
Help our strug-gling voic-es praise you,
Glo-ri-fy your ho-ly name.
Good Cre-a-tor, Sav-ior, Spir-it,
Three in One: what mys-ter-y!
We would sing our loud ho-san-nas
Now and through e-ter-ni-ty.

Epistle Lesson

Romans 8:22-27

Julie McLelland

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.

Prayer at Pentecost

Judah Jones

One: Creator God, who came to us as Jesus the Christ and who fills us with the Holy Spirit, breathe in us anew this day, fall afresh on our weary spirits.

All: ϕ Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on us, Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on us. Melt us, mold us, fill us, use us. Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on us.

One: Living God, as we celebrate the birthing of the church on this Pentecost Sunday, we remember the faithful ministry of our forebears who worked to establish our congregation as a light of hope in this community. We give thanks for today's living saints who have shaped our present and enlivened our future, continuing to generously offer their gifts in your service. Breathe your Spirit in us as we seek to keep a vibrant faith alive in this new day and age.

All: ϕ Spirit of the Living God...

One: Loving God, as we renew our commitments to following Jesus, we give thanks for your life-sustaining presence that enlivens our calling to be the hands and feet of mission. Breathe your Spirit in us as we strive to bring the gospel alive in this new day and age.

All: ϕ Spirit of the Living God...

One: Gracious God, empower us as a congregation to speak boldly and to act courageously on the journey of ministry that lies before us, affirming our heritage and proclaiming our hope. Breathe your Spirit in us as we strive to bring the gospel alive in this new day and age.

All: ϕ Spirit of the Living God...

One: God of all, join our hearts as one as together we pray...

Our God in whom is heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen

The Acts of the Apostles Acts 2:1-21 (paraphrase) Fred Robinson

When the day of Pentecost, the feast of the Giving of the Law had arrived, the eleven disciples, the women and others who had also followed Jesus from the beginning were all together in the upper room where they had broken bread and shared the cup with him on the night of Passover before crucifixion and where he had met them on the night of the day he arose from the dead.

And suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the rush of a mighty, driving wind filling all the house where they were sitting. And the light of God which shines in the darkness, which shines preeminently in the face of Jesus rested upon the head of each one of them, as it were a flame, a tongue of fire, like that which burned in a bush on Sinai and consumed it not.

And they were, every one of them --- filled with the Holy Spirit.....

the Spirit which brooded over the primeval chaos at Creation's Dawn....

The Spirit which fell upon the prophets, enabling them to hear the word of the Lord, and to preach it....

The Spirit which descended upon Jesus at his baptism....

Each one then declared the message given to that one uniquely and everyone, from near and far, could understand all that was said. So, it was fulfilled as it had been foretold by the prophet Joel: That their children would prophesy. That the young would see visions and that the elders would dream. Because, the Spirit of the Living God was poured out on all...the new covenant, written on the heart had succeeded the one written on stone; the one who was to lead them into all truth had come!

One: May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Many: Thanks be to God. Open our ears, our hearts, our minds.
