"Christ the Lord Is Risen Today"

EASTER HYMN

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Mortal tongues and angels say: Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, glad heavens, and earth reply: Alleluia!

Let the Victor's people sing, Alleluia!
Where, O death, is now your sting? Alleluia!
Dying once, Christ lives to save, Alleluia!
Where your victory, O grave? Alleluia!

Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia!
Death in vain forbids Christ rise, Alleluia!
God has opened paradise, Alleluia!

Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head, Alleluia!
Made like Christ, like Christ we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!

Monthly Affirmation

Ourselves: As the Christ within me rises, I experience the hope of new life.

Neighbor: As the Christ within you rises, you experience the hope of new life.

World: As the Christ within us rises, we experience the hope of new life.

Prayer for Transformation (unison)

Pam Shimberg

Join me in prayer as we confess the ways we seek to be changed and transformed...

God of new life, we confess that we do not always recognize resurrection when it arrives, in ourselves, in others, or in the world around us. We hold on to fear, cling to what is comfortable, and sometimes turn away from your transforming love. Forgive us, and call us again by name, that we may rise with Christ into hope. Amen.

Song of Transformation “God, Be Merciful to Me” Redhead 76

God be merciful to me; on your grace I rest my plea.
My transgressions I confess; grief and guilt my soul oppress.
Wash me, make me pure within; cleanse, O cleanse me from my sin.

Gracious God, my heart renew, make my spirit right and true.
Do not cast me from your sight nor remove your Spirit’s light.
Your salvation’s joy restore, make me steadfast evermore.

Words of Grace Rev. Christopher Czarnecki

Song of Response “Return to God” M. Haugen

Return to God with all your heart, the source of grace and mercy.
Come seek the tender faithfulness of God.

Stories for All People Rev. Christopher Czarnecki

Our Scripture for today comes from the Gospel of John 20:1-18, where Mary comes to the tomb on the third day after Jesus' crucifixion and finds it empty...

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus's head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed, for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb, and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not touch me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and she told them that he had said these things to her.

One: For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us. For the word of God within us.

Many: Thanks be to God.

Invitation to Generosity

Jean Raley-Dennis

On this resurrection morning, we are invited to share not just our joy, but our resources, to help bring new life where it is needed most. Just as Mary ran to tell the good news, we respond with hearts open to give. Let us offer what we have, trusting that the power of love multiplies what we share.

Song during Offering “Lord, I Lift Your Name on High”

R. Founds

Lord, I lift your name on high.

Lord, I love to sing your praises.

I'm so glad you're in my life;

I'm so glad you came to save us.

You came from heaven to earth to show the way.

From the earth to the cross, my debt to pay.

From the cross to the grave, from the grave to the sky;

Lord, I lift your name on high.

Prayer of Dedication

Jean Raley-Dennis

Risen Christ, bless these gifts and all who give. May they be signs of hope, seeds of justice, and vessels of resurrected life in a world longing to be made new. Use them, and use us, for your love-filled work. Amen.

Words of Institution

Hymn “We Gather Here in Jesus’ Name”

COME, SHARE THE LORD

We gather here in Jesus’ name;
Christ’s love is burning in our hearts like living flame;
For through Christ’s sacrifice, the whole wide world unites.
Come, take the bread; come, drink the wine; come, share the Lord.

No one is a stranger here; everyone belongs.
Finding our forgiveness here, we in turn forgive all wrongs.

Christ joins us here; and breaks the bread;
Our God who pours the cup is risen from the dead;
The one we love the most is now our gracious host:
Come, take the bread; come, drink the wine; come, share the Lord.

We are now a family, of which our God is head.
Though unseen, Christ meets us here in the breaking of the bread.

We’ll gather soon in glory rise;
We’ll see the wonder of our God and of our Christ.
Now we anticipate the feast for which we wait:
Come, take the bread; come, drink the wine; come, share the Lord.

Prayer of Thanksgiving (unison)

Risen Christ, just as you called Mary by name, call to us now in the breaking of bread and the sharing of cup. Let these simple gifts nourish us with your boundless grace and renew us with resurrection hope. By your Spirit, may we become your body, alive with love, for a world in need of rising. And now, we join together praying:

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kin-dom come; your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For your is the kin-dom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
